

KAI is one of the world's foremost measures for problem-solving, teamwork and creativity.

The KAI Accreditation Course is an exclusive programme for qualification in the use of KAI, the Kirton Adaption-Innovation Inventory. KAI has been helping to build leaders and teams for more than 40 years.

Many KAI Practitioners are high-level leadership consultants and HR professionals, and they frequently cite KAI as one of the most sophisticated, insightful and robust tools available. KAI is backed by extensive academic research, including more than 450 academic theses & papers, and is used in many sectors, including business, government, military and healthcare organisations.

As an Accredited KAI Practitioner, you will be able to use and administer the KAI Inventory, an effective & highly marketable psychometric tool. KAI is provided online, and is available in a range of languages.

This course is presented in a hybrid format, with live online interactive instruction, and online study time. Delegates will spend approximately 3½ hours in the course each day, in addition to assigned homework. Course leaders are from the Center for Cooperative Problem Solving at Virginia Tech University.

You will earn 3.5 Continuing Education Units (CEUs) from VT, for completing the course.
